MISS MARGARET B. FORBES

Entertainments

MISS UZZELLE HOSTESS AT DELICIOUS HOLIDAY TEA
Miss Uzzelle was hostess at a delicious holiday tea on Tuesday afternoon, when a bevy of attractive girls from schools and colleges enjoyed her hospitality. Her home on Peabody avenue was simply but most artistically decorated for the occasion in holiday motif. The lights were veiled in red tulle and the mantels were banked with ferns. A bower of palms screened the musicians, who rendered a pleasing program throughout the afternoon, the music serving as a delightful accompaniment to the gay conversation of the young girls.

The hostess was attractively gowned for the afternoon in peach shade with net draperies in the same shade with which she wore a gift covered bouquet of tea roses.

Among the other prettily gowned girls who assisted her in receiving were: Misses Elizabeth Stewart, Sara Conley, Louise Gathie, Susan Sleeth, Frances Bryan, Margaret Friend, Gertrude Hooper, Caroline Hurt, Daisy Maddux, Margaret Cole, Mary Hunt Maddux and Ethyl Lawrence. Miss Uzzelle was also assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. John E. Uzzelle.

Scarlet carnations arranged in a crystal basket, caught with a scarlet bow being present between the hours of 4:30 and 6 o'clock.

MISS SMITH ENTERTAINS FOR PRETTY BRIDE-ELECT
Miss Eleanor Smith entertained on Tuesday afternoon with a tea at the Country club in honor of Miss Annie Cheek Barton, a popular bride-elect.

The usual Christmas decorations at the club formed a pretty background for the attractively gowned guests. A dainty salad course was served during the afternoon.

Miss Smith was gowned to receive her guests in black velvet with touches of turquoise and a hat to match. Miss Barton wore a handsome gown of brown crepe beaded in bronze over henna satin and a black panne velvet hat with trimmings of ostrich.

FANCY DRESS PARTY ENJOYED BY COLLEGE SET
Among the most delightful of the gay holiday festivities enjoyed by members of the college set will be the fancy dress dancing party, which will be tendered on Tuesday evening at Miss Riley's studio by a group of attractive young girls, the hostesses being Misses Elise Humphreys, Flora Mac and Alma Belle Black, Florence Thompson, Hettie Boyce, Peggy Land and Louise Brown.

The dancing studio will be prettily decorated for the occasion, a holiday motif being carried out in poinsettias, holly wreaths and garlands of evergreens.

The guests will be in fancy dress presenting a brilliant holiday carnival picture and during the latter part of the evening the air will be filled with confetti.

About 200 members of the college and younger sets will have the pleasure of being present under the charming chaperonage of Misses W. Black, Hugh Humphreys, E. E. Land, W. E. Brown, F. C. Gifford, C. W. Thompson and Miss C. Wilson.

FOOD INSPECTORS COMPLETE WORK HERE; 11 FINED

The state food and drug inspectors have completed their inspection of the local firms coming under their jurisdiction. Conditions found here were reported fully as good if not better than upon the last inspection.

Inspector W. C. Robertson, of Chattanooga, was in charge of the work here, assisted by inspectors D. Y. Pearson, of Nashville, and G. B. Clark, of Memphis. The work started early in December.

Visits were made to about 75 per cent of the business houses handling food or drugs. Mr. Robertson said. Many of the places showed marked improvements. Prosecutions were instituted in but about five per cent of the places visited. That number is not above the average for cities of this size, according to the inspectors.

A total of 47 firms were reported by the inspectors and fined by Squire George B. Coleman. In each case the inspectors had called upon the proprietors and given instructions as to the requirements of the law both in person and by registered mail, Mr. Robertson said.

Eleven prosecutions were instituted in Squire Coleman's court Monday. Those fined were: Victor Ziegler, 88 West Beale avenue; A. Bryan, 1324 Florida street;

H. L. Goldklang, 1184 and 1240 Jackson avenue; T. A. Foor, 330 Jackson avenue; Charles Ellis, 329 Jackson avenue; Frank Fraccia, 247 Jackson avenue; B. Waggoner, 605 Jackson avenue; Goode Drug company, D. Goode and E. S. Rodgers, managers, 192 East Calhoun avenue; Mr. Bowers' store No. 4, J. E. Pant manager, 724 Poplar avenue; E. Aranki, 1287 Florida street, and the South Memphis Restaurant, Gus Harris, manager, 527 South Front street.

The last of the cases were heard by Squire Coleman Tuesday. S. Jacobson, 659 Poplar avenue, proprietor of a grocery and meat market, was fined $10 and costs.
